

November 28, Thursday

MP 623—EP 626 In the United States, Thanksgiving Day, with proper prayer:

Father, all powerful, your gifts of love are countless and your goodness infinite; as we come before you on Thanksgiving Day with gratitude for your kindness, open our hearts to have concern for every man, woman, and child, so that we may share your gifts in loving service. Through Our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son. (USCCB)

The End of the Year of Grace 2024

Sisters of Mercy of the Americas

*“If we are humble and sincere,
God will finish in us the work
God has begun.
God never refuses God’s grace to those who ask it.”*

— Catherine McAuley, Practical Sayings, 3

Morning and Evening Prayer
December 2, 2023 to November 30, 2024

*Hear me, Lord, and answer me,
for I am poor and needy.
Guard my life,
for I am faithful to you;
save your servant
who trusts in you.
You are my God;
have mercy on me, Lord,
for I call to you all day long.
Bring joy to your servant,
Lord,
for I put my trust in you.*

You, Lord, are forgiving and good, abounding in love to all who call to you.

Hear my prayer, Lord, listen to my cry for mercy.

—Psalm 86: 1-6

Note: When a feast day coincides with another liturgical season or solemnity, the precedence indicated in the Order of Prayer in the Liturgy of the Hours for 2024 has been followed.

When the feast has a proper antiphon and prayer, the page reference is given. To help us pray in union with the Communion of Saints, the feasts of other saints are printed in italics.

St. Josephine Bakhita, you were sold into slavery as a child and endured untold hardship and suffering. Once liberated from your physical enslavement, you found true redemption in your encounter with Christ and his Church. O St. Bakhita, assist all those who are trapped in a state of slavery; Intercede with God on their behalf so that they will be released from their chains of captivity. Those whom man enslaves, let God set free. Provide comfort to survivors of slavery and let them look to you as an example of hope and faith. Help all survivors find healing from their wounds. We ask for your prayers and intercessions for those enslaved among us. Amen.

God, source of all freedom, this day is bright with the memory of those who declared that life and liberty are your gift to every human being. Help us to continue a good work begun long ago. Make our vision clear and our will strong: that only in human solidarity will we find liberty, and justice only in the honor that belongs to every life on earth. Turn our hearts toward the family of nations: to understand the ways of others, to offer friendship, and to find safety only in the common good of all. We ask this through Christ our Lord. (USCCB)
